

Kazimierz Dolny, 13.06.2017

Hello guys! That's me, Chako!

I am really tired, these crazy guys never sleeeep!

Yesterday we had the international dancing night!
I really enjoyed that!

Today I woke up and I walked with closed eyes all the morning

But the morning was fantastic, We walked a lot, We cross the river by ferry....and We arrived at the Castle in Janowiec....beautiful place!
It is located in a Green, "bellissimo" landscape...full of history.

Here I discovered how people lived in the past in Kazimierz region. I could really imagine my chicken ancestors!
Great experience!

At lunch I saw a terrible thing! Guys was eating my similars (my old chicken friends) It was disgusting!

After this, We had an interesting workshop about doscrimination done by Hector.
I understand that it is really important valor...but why no one talked about chicken discrimination??!

At the end, We started a musical workshop...but IT WILL CONTINUE.

So people...now I have free evening, I am going to have fun!

Hasta la vista amigos!

